

A drive to blow CIA agents' cover

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Renegade CIA agent Philip Agee has begun a worldwide campaign to uncover and identify every American intelligence officer working abroad.

Agee has given his followers detailed instructions on how to find intelligence officers, demonstrate outside their homes and exert pressure to have them expelled from host countries. If this exposes an agent to possible danger, Agee said, it would be the responsibility of the CIA to transfer the person.

Wreck kills 3 West Point kin

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Three children of present or former officials at the U.S. Military Academy here and a young West German woman were killed in an auto accident near the academy, military police said yesterday.

Thomas Rogers, 18, son of retired Army Col. Thomas Rogers; Kathleen Fundt, 17, daughter of Lt. Col. Richard Fundt; Gary Pillings, 18, son of Edward Pillings, trainer of the academy's football team; and Constance Gussone, of Rheinland-Pfalz, West Germany, a guest at the Rogers' West Point home, died in the one-car accident Friday night.

The CIA and at least two senators are trying to determine how to stop Agee.

He revealed his plans last week in Havana during a Communist-sponsored World Festival of Youth and Students, where he chaired a well publicized "tribunal" on the CIA, which he branded "the Gesta-po and SS of our time."

He also announced publication of a new bi-monthly called "Covert Action Information Bulletin." A limited number of copies are circulating in Washington.

The first edition, which also carries the introduction of Agee's new book, "Dirty Work: The CIA in Western Europe," gave "as a service to our readers" the name of a man who was identified as the new CIA Station Chief in Jamaica, with alleged details of his previous posts.

"We will never stop exposing CIA personnel and operations whenever and wherever we find them," said Agee, a CIA veteran of 12 years.

Agee said his new book carries "detailed biographies of more than 700 undercover CIA and National Security Agency personnel lurking in embassies and military installations in virtually every country on earth." He said he is going after the rest.

Mastermind Philip Agee

"The CIA probably has no more than 5,000 officers experienced in running clandestine operations, and it should be possible to identify almost all of those who have worked under diplomatic cover at any time in their careers," he said.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., told the Senate Intelligence Committee last Thursday that Agee's citizenship should be revoked, and Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, Friday urged the Senate to pass legislation as quickly as possible to make unauthorized disclosure of the identity of CIA agents a crime.

Asked if any action would be taken to stop the new Agee publications in the United States, a Justice Department spokesman said none had been requested.
